DUBLIN, Nov. 19.—In the court at Clonmel to-day a verdict of guilty was rendered against Wm. O'Brien, John Dillon, Patrick O'Brien, all of whom are members of Parliament; John O'Hanlon, Thos. Walsh, Patrick McNamee and Mr. Bolson, who were indicted on charges of conspiring to induce the tenants on the Smith-Barry estates not to pay rent. Wm. O'Brien and John Dillon were each sentenced to two terms of imprisonment of six months each, but the sentences are to run concurrently. Patrick O'Brien and Culmann were each sentenced to six months imprisonment and Walsh, McNamee and Bolson to four months each. All the sentences were to be served at Cork. Father Humphreys, Thomas J. Condon, M. P.; Daniel Kelly and David Sheehy, M. P., who were indicted on the same charges, were found not guilty and were discharged.

Mysterious Killing of a Russian.

PARIS, Nov. 19.—Gen. Seliverskoff, a Russian agent in France, died to-day from the effects of a bullet wound in his head, inflicted in a manner which is at present a mystery. Conflicting reports are current. One report says that a stranger called upon him yesterday at his residence at the Hotel Bade, and that half an hour after his visitor had departed Gen. Seliverskoff was found by his valet lying unconscious in his room, shot in the head. Other reports state that the General received no visitors. No weapon was found and the furniture in the room was not disarranged. The police attach some suspicion to the valet and he is carefully watched.

AN ASSASSINATION.

The judicial authorities are conducting an inquiry at the Hotel Bade into Gen. Seliverskoff's death and having examined a number of the servants, the police have become convinced that the valet had nothing to do with the shooting of his master and they have therefore withdrawn their watch on him. The valet was much attached to the General. The evidence clearly points to an assassination.

PARIS, Nov. 19.—It is stated that Cardinal Rampolla, the Papal Secretary of State, has requested the Irish Catholic Bishops to come to Rome on Jan. 15, for an important conference on Irish matters. It is not known whether or not the Parnell scandal and its bearings on Irish politics will be one of the subjects discussed or not.

Debated by Wolves.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Word comes from India that wolves are causing terrible devastation in the central provinces. One pack of eight wolves killed and devoured forty persons who were engaged in watching cattle. The victims were mostly children. The wolves ate them, but did not touch the cattle.

A Famous Prison Abandoned.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The famous prison of Mill Bank was vacated on Sunday. Four years ago it ceased to be used as a convict establishment, and it has since been used as a place of temporary commitment. It is now vacant altogether. Roupell, the forger, the Pickford criminal and other noted criminals have been inmates of Mill Bank.

Lady Roseberry Dead.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Lady Roseberry, wife of Lord Roseberry, the well-known Liberal peer, died at 5 o'clock this morning. Lady Roseberry had been ill for some time. She was the only daughter of the late Baron Meyer De Rothschild and was married to Lord Roseberry March 30, 1878.

Spain's Protectionist Policy.

MADRID, Nov. 19.—The masked protectionist policy of the Spanish Government is causing much uneasiness among Spanish manufacturers and property-owners, the duties on imported coal being made double the former rates, and the export duties of iron and copper being largely increased.

Judicial Torture in Macedonia.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The object of the Government in Macedonia is the creation of a regular army to subdue the tribes of the country. The Government proposed to form a corps of irregular troops to co-operate with the regulars and ordered the chiefs to provide men and horses for that purpose. The chiefs were informed that 100,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 cavalrymen would be required for the new branch of the service. This order created considerable excitement among the Arabs, it being generally believed that Turkey was about to go to war with a foreign power. Subsequently, the chiefs who had expressed any reason as to the cause of the Government's action were informed that there were no immediate fears of an outbreak of hostilities, but the Porte attached importance to the readiness of the Arabs to co-operate with the regular troops.

A Tardy Concession.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The object of the Government in increasing the pay of the Metropolitan Police is to counteract the effect of ex-Commissioner Monroe's article in the North American Review, in which the writer severely arraigned the Government for its extremely shabby treatment of these hard-worked and faithful public servants. It was feared that the publication of this exposure would cost the Conservatives a considerable number of votes in London, and to guard against such a catastrophe this tardy concession to the just demands of the men was determined upon. The influence of the police is quite a factor in London politics, and it is not impossible that the action of the Government in their behalf may not only prevent any heavy loss on account of disaffection among the officers, but actually result in the gain of one or two seats.

The Congo Commission.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 19.—At the session of the Congo commission, the British delegate declared the readiness of his Government to open a discussion on import duties affecting ports in Eastern Africa under the Berlin act, provided the details of a tariff for the East and West coast be submitted at a full meeting. The German, American and Italian delegates strongly supported the proposal, but the French representative insisted upon France exercising absolute control over the tariff in the French Congo country. This attitude of France will delay the settlement of the question indefinitely.

Balfour's Speech.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Mr. Balfour's speech at Grimbury last night is given a prominent place in all Conservative newspapers and is strongly commended by them. The Irish Secretary met with an enthusiastic reception from the 7,000 persons present at the meeting. After speaking at the regular meeting, Mr. Balfour addressed an overflow meeting. He said that he had been assailed with a degree and kind of calumny unequalled in English history in any political controversy not recently connected with Ireland. He continued:

"I have been struck from the meeting these last days, as far as I can see, and I cannot see at the happiest moment, when, instead of saying these things behind my back, they say them to my face in the House of Commons, where I can contradict them. But whether they say them in the Commons or through the mouths of illustrious politicians like Mr. Morley and Mr. Gladstone, or whether through the obscure channel of the paid lecturer or the itinerant comedian, I am prepared to meet them. Both in and out of the House of Commons, I have said with the single-minded view of benefiting, not only the empire, but the population before which I am habitually held up as an object of common contempt and execration. The Irish politicians have too long been in the habit of regarding every misfortune and weakness of Ireland as another weapon to use against the Government. Irish disaffection does not present itself to them as affording an occasion on which they might impartially consider the best method of dealing with the condition of the people, but as a new means of setting class against class and a new occasion for the issuing of no-red manifestos. Any man who anguishes that the difficulty to be dealt with is the rent difficulty shows either ignorance or bad faith. If every shilling of rent in the congested districts were abolished the problem would not be less menacing."

Atrocities in Armenia.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The stories of atrocities in Armenia are being revived. The Armenians have been left as poor by the漫游 Turks who are said to be an Armenian found dead, his daughter, who had been carried away by the Turks a year ago, in the street near the house of a Turkish Bey at Karpoot. She told a fearful story of maltreatment. The Kurds kept her in their camp in the hills for six months, and then sold her to the Bey. She says that many Armenian women are slaves in the harems of the Turks.

Lord Salisbury's Change.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Lord Salisbury's surprising change from an extremity like a very pacific attitude toward Portugal, about three weeks ago, is now believed to be prompted by information conveyed to the Premier that Portugal owed the Barings nearly £1,000,000, the loss or denial of which to that house, through hostilities between England and Portugal, would have precipitated the collapse of that great house.

Student Demonstration in Madrid.

MADRID, Nov. 19.—To-day was the anniversary of the riot which occurred in 1884. The students at the university refused to enter the building. They formed in procession and marched to the office of the Minister of Justice, where they made a hostile demonstration. They then marched through the streets singing and shouting. The police drew their swords and attempted to check the progress of the mob, but they were speedily disarmed. The students attach some suspicion to the valet and he is carefully watched.

ROME, Nov. 19.—It is stated that Cardinal Rampolla, the Papal Secretary of State, has requested the Irish Catholic Bishops to come to Rome on Jan. 15, for an important conference on Irish matters. It is not known whether or not the Parnell scandal and its bearings on Irish politics will be one of the subjects discussed or not.

PARNELL MUST GO.

The Declaration of Dr. Parker of the City Temple, London.

Important Manifesto to Be Issued by the Irish Delegates Now Here.

The Document Will Express Complete Confidence in the Irish Leader and Show His Great Labors in Behalf of Suffering Ireland—T. P. Gill States That the Outcome of the Divorce Case Will Not Affect the Irish Party or Its Leader—The Nationalist Leaders Considerably Irritated.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Dr. Parker, the noted priest-critic of the City Temple, declared in an interview to-day that Mr. Parnell is bound to retire from the Irish leadership since his private character has been marred, as the Liberal party would lose a very large support among the non-conformists if it should continue to affiliate with a politician who openly sets the laws of God and man at defiance.

Confidence in Parnell.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Mr. T. E. O'Connor, M. P., said this morning that Mr. Dillon had left for Buffalo last evening for the purpose of meeting Mr. O'Brien there. Mr. Dillon is in his position as a draft of a manifesto is to be issued to the various Irish leaders expressing confidence in Mr. Parnell's genius and devotion to the Irish cause. The manifesto will be issued to the leaders of the Irish party, the leaders of the Liberal party, and to the leaders of the Conservative party.
The manifesto will be issued to the leaders of the Liberal party, the leaders of the Conservative party, and to the leaders of the Conservative party.

Will Not Affect Parnell.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—T. P. Gill, member of the British Parliament from Southwark, told a reporter yesterday that the outcome of the O'Shea divorce case would not affect Parnell's leadership of the Irish party in the least.

Nationalist Leaders Irritated.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Nationalist leaders are considerably irritated over the prediction Parnell has placed them in. They placed so much confidence in him that they took up his cause and warmly defended him from the charges when the scandal was first talked of in the papers months ago and they fully expected him to be exonerated in the courts.
Parnell has always condemned the tardy Irish members of Parliament for the lapse in taking their seats in the House of Commons. He has been instrumental in securing the leadership, will, after the consultations with Mr. O'Brien, be given to the press at Buffalo.

WHEN the smoke has passed away, the advantages of St. Louis as a place of residence will be more clearly manifest.

SILVER has dropped from 120 to 97 since WINDOM put his new silver machine in motion, and the glory of WINDOM has collapsed.

ENGLISH CAPITALISTS have learned some severe lessons in the present pinch on the folly of loaning money on bad security to get big interest.

HERS MOSK, the professional Anarchist, arrived in the city to-day with a large stock of bombs concealed in his jaw. He will let off some of them during his visit.

ONE of the most cheering signs of the times is the report that the Kansas Farmers' Alliance is opposed to Ingalls because he waved the bloody shirt in the last campaign.

OUT of the second stock flurry on Wall Street, Mr. GOULD bobs up with a block of Richmond Terminal stock. It takes a bad financial wind to blow ill to a shrewd speculator with a big bank account.

WE would have more confidence in the success of the World's Fair project if the commission would reach a decision with regard to its site. It is difficult even to imagine an exposition without a location.

FORTUNATELY Thanksgiving Day comes before the meeting of the State Legislature, and Missouri may, therefore, respond to the Governor's proclamation with hearty accord.

THE day of party committees packed with office holders or their henchmen to control nominations, is over in this city. Their authority and their occupation is gone. Neither reorganization nor reconstruction will make them work well.

THE aspirants and slate makers who are working to get control of the political committees in this city are wasting their time. It will be better to have the opposition than the support of those ricketty and discredited machines in the spring election.

THE strength of PARNELL with the Home Rule party is shown in the resolution of his Irish associates to stand by his leadership despite his folly and personal humiliation. It is impossible to overlook the ability or forget the services of the man, but it may be the part of wisdom to permit him to retire from the nominal if not the actual leadership.

THE people will say no when they are asked to pay the interest on several hundred millions of new interconvertible bonds merely to meet extravagant appropriations exceeding our immense revenues. The argument that these bonds are needed to absorb Wall street redundancies and relieve Wall street strains, will not be a satisfactory recommendation.

TAH a considerable number of restless and wild Sioux are excited over the Massacre at Wounded Knee. It is undoubtedly true, but there does not seem to be any occasion for the panic which is reported to have seized the white settlers in the neighborhood of the Dakota reservation. Army men familiar with the Indians and the situation hoot at the war rumors, but preparations have wisely been made for emergencies. The danger lies chiefly in the scare of the whites, who may be led by their fears to commence hostilities at the first demonstration of the Indians. With proper discretion on the part of agents and officers, and without interference by the settlers, there is no reason to doubt that the whole trouble may be settled peaceably.

GORDON AND INGALLS.

When some Republican organs were whooping over the capture of the Democratic organization by the Farmers' Alliance in Georgia and South Carolina, the Post-Dispatch took occasion to suggest that the Republican party would do well to let the farmers capture its organization in Kansas and Nebraska, if it wished to retain its hold on those States. This forecast of the situation has been vindicated by the returns.

In Georgia the Democrats went into the Farmers' Alliance, taking their party in with them, and the victorious Alliance elected GORDON to the Senate. In Kansas the position and policy of INGALLS kept the Republican party in direct antagonism to the Farmers' Alliance platform, and thus forced a multitude of Republicans into the third party movement which now controls the Kansas Legislature, and the logical conclusion is the defeat of INGALLS for re-election to the Senate.

INGALLS put too much faith in the strength of party discipline enforced by a majority of $2,000, and, standing for everything the new party opposes, it is said that he rejected its offer to re-elect him on the simple condition that he would stand with PLUMS in the contests of the late session.

GORDON, on the contrary, was one of the progenitors of the farmers' movement in Georgia. He was a Greenbacker, a free coinage man, an advocate of tax reduction, an opponent of monopoly in all its demands for legislative favors. The only quarrel the Alliance could have with him was on account of his opposition to its sub-treasury and farmers' loan project, and the result shows that a majority of its members share his views of that wild scheme.

A MYSTERY EXPLAINED.

People looking on from the outside thought for a time that the unity of the Republicans in Congress and the success of the McKinley bill were seriously threatened by the strong demand of SHERMAN, BUTTERWORTH and other Ohio members for free trade with Canada, and by the equally strong stand of New England for reciprocity with Latin America and against reciprocity with Canada.

How this contention was silenced and both sides of it induced to support the McKinley bill has been a mystery to the public, but the Chicago New finds a plausible explanation in the adroit wire pulling of BLAINE and in the powerful influence of the Standard Oil interest.

This interest owned in Canada 20,000 acres of the richest copper and nickel deposits in the world, and had its lobby agents and Congressmen at work for Canadian reciprocity in the framing of the new tariff bill. All at once when the reciprocity strife was becoming hotter, a queer joint resolution was passed in both Houses authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to expend $1,000,000 at his discretion for nickel ore to be used for warship armor. Then followed changes in the tariff bill abolishing the duty of $30 per ton on Canadian nickel ore and reducing the duty on Canadian copper to $10 per ton from $30. At the same time Congressman BUTTERWORTH obtained a $10,000 position as World's Fair Secretary, and thereafter harmony reigned between the contending reciprocity factions, and all united in passing the McKinley bill.

This explanation teaches that when legislation starts out to set a banquet of business advantages for our infant industries, it is the biggest and strongest infants that gobble up the best of the feast. The various aggregations of the money power dictate all the details of tariff legislation, while the unorganized and segregated interests of the masses are sacrificed.

FAITH in the stability of the McKinley tariff has caused a number of its beneficiary corporations to dilute their stocks. The Pennsylvania Steel Co., which made a profit of 30 per cent last year under the old tariff, now increases its stock from $300,000 to $500,000, and the Bethlehem Iron Co. does the same on a basis of 25 per cent profit last year. Others of less note are in the same prosperous condition, while Nebraska farmers are in sore distress and lookouts and wage reductions are reported from nearly all the manufacturing centers.

Koch to Be Honored.

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—As a reward for his services in the interests of medical science, the Emperor will probably confer the title of nobility upon Prof. Koch. The Professor states that the Government must prepare the lymph used in the cure of tuberculosis.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—The discovery made by Dr. Koch has been an attraction to the leading students of medicine at the national capital, and Dr. John J. Billings, one of the most accomplished investigators in this country, has just expressed some opinions that are interesting, as coming from such a responsible authority.

"The fact is that Dr. Koch who has made this investigation, and claims," said Dr. Billings, "adds a tremendous weight to the affair. Dr. Koch is known all over the world as a brilliant, but, at the same time, a careful and entirely thorough investigator. His self-dom or never makes mistakes. GRAND ENCAMPMENT.

Second Day's Session of the Annual Meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall.

The second day's session of the Grand Encampment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Missouri was opened at 9 o'clock this morning in Lodge-room No. 1, Odd Fellows' Building, with Grand Patriarch H. C. Condit presiding, the gavel. This is not a meeting of Patriarchs, but, as stated yesterday and again to-day in a morning paper, the Patriarchs. Militant in an entirely different branch of the order.

An exemplification of unwritten work of the order was made this morning by George E. Ackiam of St. Joseph, after which the several standing committees submitted their respective reports.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

The Committee on Finance, A. J. Blackford, W. H. Hudson, C. E. Cummings, J. Smith and G. C. Johnson, reported that they had examined the books and accounts of the Secretary and Treasurer, and had found them correct. Approved by the Encampment.

The Committee on Appeals, consisting of J. A. Price, T. T. Parsons, Edw. Wilkerson, S. E. Pike and S. W. Howell, reported a report of the Committee on Law, W. H. Woodward, G. A. Lusk, E. Spenser, Thos. Walton and C. W. Kunkel, submitted a report, approving the by-laws adopted by new subordinate encampments. Report accepted and approved.

The Committee on State of Order, G. H. Gannaway, Chas. F. Vogel, S. W. Pike, Geo. E. Acklam and C. A. Blackford, recommended that the Grand Patriarch be allowed $200 a year for traveling expenses in visiting encampments, the officer having heretofore been required to pay his own expenses. Report received and recommendation adopted.

The Committee on Charters, J. T. Moss, W. H. Reisner, John S. Frederick, J. A. Sims and J. R. Bratton, recommended that the Encampment approve of the action of Grand Patriarch in granting dispensations. Report adopted.

The Committee on Missions, C. A. Conradi, J. Smith, Jacob Rothstein, C. A. Linsch and W. H. Woodward, recommended that the Grand Patriarch be allowed $200 a year for traveling expenses in visiting encampments, the officer having heretofore been required to pay his own expenses. Linen Day at Barr's.

We tell you candidly that if you start in to read this "ad" you won't stop till you've read every word of it. To get right at it: A thousand yards half-dollar cream damask at 35 cents; sixty-cent damask at 37½ cents, and seventy-cent damask at 55 cents. And if it'll do you any good to know, they're part of a big "job" purchase.

But that isn't all. There's a nice, heavy, wide dollar table damask for 89 cents; beautiful pattern. All it wants to sell is to be seen.

But if you want something really elegant, there's the celebrated snow drop damask, double satin, bleached, 72 inches wide, same's you've been paying a dollar-quarter for, at $1.00 a yard. This is a gilt-edged bargain.

Please think several good strong adjectives before reading this: Watson & Armstrong's No. 4 two-twenty-five napkins for $1.55 a dozen. Five-eighths size and exactly 500 dozen. This price good as long as they last. Barr's is the place.

Wonder if anybody else'll dare talk about bargains for a week? They're all frauds, make-believes, other bargains are. You can't trust a bargain unless it's got the name Barr to it—not that we mean the slightest personal disrepect, mind you. We are simply acting in our capacity of guardian of the public purse.

Glass toweling! Twelve thousand yards! manufacturers' short ends, 18 inches wide, in pieces. 8 yards for $1.00. Also extra wide crash toweling, regular twelve-and-a-half-cent goods, for ten cents a yard.

Barr's confidently expect to entertain every housekeeper within coming distance to-morrow. This special will bring them: Elegant damask bird's eye and momie towels, 50 inches long, 4 rows of open work, and it's worth that much just to see them.

Also a small assortment of open-work towels, worth $9.00 a dozen, for $4.00.

Now, didn't we say you wouldn't stop till you'd read every word?

STILL FALLING.

The Anticipated Advance in Stocks Fails to Materialize.

A Weak London Market Again Influences Wall Street.

A Decidedly Panicky Feeling Prevails at the Opening, Followed by a Slight Recovery—The Bank of England Will Not Discount Baring Bros.' Acceptances Before Maturity—Causes of the Uncertainty on Wall Street—A Receiver of the North River Bank Appointed—Strong Efforts Made to Sustain Stocks—Actions of the Clearing House.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—THE market this morning opened very weak in response to that of London and a decidedly panicky feeling made itself manifest. Prices all along the line dropped sharply. In the morning, from 50 to 75 per cent, and for a short time it appeared likely that the bottom would drop out of everything. A strong effort was made to sustain the market and the decline was stopped, but all attempts to put up prices to the figures of last night proved abortive. There is great lack of confidence and extreme anxiety in all quarters, and a disastrous break in prices is feared.

CAUSES OF THE DECLINE.

Two factors are particularly influential in causing this state of affairs. The action of the Clearing-house in preserving strict secrecy in regard to which banks are receiving assistance, has cast a shade of suspicion over all except the very strongest and has caused depositors to transfer accounts from the institutions, and, as a result, able to stand the strain. This occasioned a slight run on the Howard Savings Bank of Newark yesterday. It began in a small way on Monday. When the bank opened yesterday morning a line of depositors had formed in front of the bank. They were all small customers, chiefly signers, and the aggregate paid out at the closing hour was less than $40,000. President Frelinghuysen, the eldest son of the late Secretary of State, said yesterday that the bank could pay all its depositors in full and then have $1,000,000 on hand.

This causes the smaller banks to refuse loans, and hoard their currency in order to be ready to meet a run at any time, the result being that from $7,000,000 to $10,000,000 are withdrawn from circulation at the time when the money is wanted.

THE FINANCIAL SITTING-UP.

Another potent factor in depressing prices is to be found in the unwillingness of brokers to fill orders on margins. They find themselves unable to borrow money to carry stocks, and are therefore compelled to refuse to fill orders. Thus one of the greatest sustaining forces of the market is removed, and as a consequence the bears have matters of their own way. Great disappointment was felt at the failure of the market to rally yesterday. The advance had been confidently looked for, instead of which a decline took place, which had the effect of most seriously impairing confidence.

LONDON'S STOCK EXCHANGE.

The London market was weaker than ever. At 10 o'clock the market opened, compared with last evening's closing prices showed a decline of 3-16 for consols for money; a decline of 1-16 for the account of the few Canadian Pacific, a decline of 16 for Erie; a decline of 1 for the account of the Illinois Central; a decline of 1 for Erie second; a decline of 1 for the account of the Central; a decline of 16 for St. Paul common; a decline of 16 for New York Central; a decline of 4 for Pennsylvania; a decline of 1 for the account of the Erie & G. W. & St. Paul and no change for second mortgage. At 1 o'clock there was a momentary rally, but in half an hour the market again dropped.

The rumors affecting another large Anglo-American house are pronounced to be unfounded. London, Nov. 19.—The speculative account which has been partly carried by the market for liquidation at the end of November, will be continued beyond that date, it is said.

The London Times says: "No bills drawn on Baring Bros. after last Saturday by correspondents for next week, causing fears that the London market will be recognized. The Bank of England is practically in charge of the Baring's affairs. It is probable that firm will be removed from the market. The bank is charging a high rate of discount in order to prevent an influx of bills. It desires holders of existing bills to return them. The market, however, has been panicky, to the surprise of everyone closed very strong."

A BETTER ADVANCE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Just before close of Exchange a remarkable change in the market took place. There was a perfect run of buyers, heavy purchases were made and prices were forced not only above the highest bid, but above those of last night. Atchison, which opened at 24, closed at 26½ C. & St. L. from 27 to 28. Lackawanna from 12½ to 12¾, Erie 2ds from 94 to 96, Illinois Central from 92 to 97½, Michigan & St. Louis from 96 to 96½, Lake Shore from 103½ to 104½, Missouri Pacific from 57½ to 58½, and Western from 100 to 101. The market, which had been panicky, to the surprise of everyone closed very strong.

GOULD SELLING DOWN STOCKS.

The reports that the London banks would loan money for next week, causing fears that the market would be recognized, a great scarcity of funds on settling day, gave rise to some anxiety that the market would be closed. It is now officially known that no such course would be pursued. This strengthened the market position, and the market closed very strong.

A BETTER ADVANCE.

The reports that the London banks would loan money for next week, causing fears that the market would be recognized. The Bank of England is practically in charge of the Baring's affairs. It is probable that firm will be removed from the market. The bank is charging a high rate of discount in order to prevent an influx of bills. It desires holders of existing bills to return them. The market, however, has been panicky, to the surprise of everyone closed very strong.

JULIA MARLOWE VERY LOW.

The Recovery of the Young Actress Considered Practically Hopeless.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 19.—Miss Julia Marlowe, the actress, is to-day lying at the point of death with her only hope of life depending on an almost hopeless surgical operation. Miss Marlowe, the first to have been stricken with fever three weeks ago and on last Friday passed the crisis of the disease in safety, but for complications would at this time be dead. The doctor, Dr. Edward Pearce, of the Court Street, has decided to perform the operation, which he believes will hold a consultation, and as she will be dead if the operation is not performed, they will probably decide to operate.

President Grier reviewed in a lengthy address the work of the association giving also a report of the progress of the association, and the members of the association were friendly and not antagonistic to the different transportation committees.

THE POST-DISPATCH-PAGES 9 AND 10.

ST. LOUIS, WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 19, 1890.

REAL ESTATE NEWS.

S. E. FREUND BUYS A PROMINENT BUSINESS CORNER FOR $65,000.

Christy Avenue Values and Improvements— Christy's Addition and its Unique Street Name—Picture—Sales of Whole Block to the Ames Trust—Cartas & Co. Sell Nearly $100,000 Worth of Property—Other Agents' Report.

Mr. Simon E. Freund of the dry goods firm of L. Freund & Bros. has purchased the premises at the southwest corner of Christy Avenue and Seventh street from John L. Boland for $65,000. The property has a frontage of 75 feet on Christy Avenue, a depth of 101 on Seventh, and when the pending leases have expired in April, 1891, the old buildings will be torn down and a fine modern business structure erected in the place of them. In this transaction, which has been pending for nearly a month, the grantor was represented by the firm of Cornet & Ziebig, while L. V. Cartas & Co. did the business for Mr. Freund.

Mr. Boland bought this corner in February, 1888, when the enterprise which has since changed Christy avenue from the most disreputable streets in the city to an active and well-improved business thoroughfare was first inaugurated. No other such marked change in the value of real estate has been made on any of the down-town streets. When the lowest dives of Christy used to be, old rookeries, where crime flourished in its basest forms, have been torn away and in the place of them spacious wholesale houses of commanding and attractive architectural proportions have been built to the height of five to seven stories on both sides of the street between Broadway and Eleventh.

Before these improvements were started there was no demand for Christy avenue property at any price until after P. J. Cunningham bought the old colored church site fronting 101 feet at the southwest corner of Eighth and Locust.

This corner has been improved by Mr. Cunningham with a very fine business house, and the buildings were not there the value of $100,000, but were not purchased for less than $50,000 to day. Shortly after buying it he bought the southeast corner of Eighth and Locust, and a short time after for $21,000 to W. H. Thompson who has since erected a very substantial seven-story building. The improvements in these transactions gave an impetus to other speculations than being pushed by L. E. Anderson, of the Hammel, Anderson, Wade, Real Estate Co., who has the largest number of purchasable pieces of property on the street within the short space of a month. With one exception he has not purchased any for improvement and has erected very fine buildings, now occupied by prominent wholesale firms, and for that reason there have been no further increases in value within the past year. In April, 1888, Charles Gauss purchased the 4015 foot numbered 811 block of Locust street, and he has sold the same premises on the 8th of September last for $25,000 to W. J. Johnson.

Whereas, Mr. Johnson is now erecting substantial stone houses on the northwest corner of Seventh that he needs to be for many years, one of the worst dens in St. Louis, and the first to be demolished, he has sold the same to Mr. Boland on the southwest corner of Eighth and Locust, February 18, 1888, for $35,000. Since then, Mr. Boland has had the benefit of an income of $4,000 a year from the old buildings, now sold, at a profit of $12,000, and he has now sold the same again in consideration of the change in the character of the street and the extensive improvements made around him, and has sold it for $65,000.

Another clear demonstration that Mr. Freund has secured a bargain in the property at 808 is a foot, a round figure, it may be, but the other's a boy. The fact that the child being a highly respected young business man makes the news more disgraceful, than being having been perfect for him last March.

Nearly $100,000 by ONE FIRM. L. V. Cartas & Co., representing S. E. Freund, a prominent and wealthy merchant, in addition to the new Christy Avenue and Christy's Addition and Seventh street for him for $65,000, also sold 200 feet of ground for him in the 4015 block of Locust street, and he has sold 200 feet of ground on the south line of Locust street at Cheltenham at $4 a foot, and Barretts to the same purchaser, Mr. Randolph.

Another sale by the same firm was that of a 60-foot lot at the northwest corner of California and Wyoming, at $25 a foot from the Compton Hill Improvement Co. to L. Epstein.

Cartas & Co. also sold 50 feet of ground on the north line of Shenandoah street between Compton and Grand, from the Compton Hill Improvement Co. to H. E. Lamke at $4 a foot, and he has sold 50 feet of ground dwelling there. Another purchase for Mr. Freund by this firm was that of 5000 feet of ground at the northeast corner of Barton and Broadway, which was bought from Solomon Boudi

OTHER SALES. The sale of the three-story brick houses and 402100 feet of ground at Nos. 121 and 123 South Seventh street, new Hickory, for $4,500, from W. S. Fischer to W. H. Randolph, is reported. Mr. Bryan, Jr., of the same firm, sold 200 feet of ground on the south line of Gratiot street at Cheltenham at $4 a foot, from Barretts to the same purchaser, Mr. Randolph.

Messrs. Cornet & Ziebig have been prominent in the purchase of a number of very important sites of property recently, and Freund's purchase of the Boland property for $65,000 being one of the large transactions.

The Denver (Colo.) syndicate who purchased the Ames tract in East St. Louis have platted the area through the city, and christened the streets running through it, and the Christy Avenue and Seventh street for him for $65,000, also sold 200 feet of ground for him in the 4015 block of Locust street, and he has sold 200 feet of ground on the south line of Locust street at Cheltenham at $4 a foot, from Barretts to the same purchaser, Mr. Randolph.

The Mysterious Disappearance of Three Well-Known Citizens of Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 18.—There have been three mysterious disappearances of well-known men here within a month. The first was Madford Austin, a clerk in the Post-office, who is believed to have committed suicide by jumping from a ferry boat into the Niagara River. The second was Jas. W. Mather, aged 60, employed in his Compatriot's office, who disappeared two days after election, and has not been seen since. Head of the office is Fred Klemelman, a popular restaurant keeper, who has been missing for several days past. It is said that Klemelman has been running a gambling den, and that he has left town until his affairs are smoothed over.

A DUEL ON THE TAPES.

Two Baltimore Students Meet on the Field of Honor.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 19.—The story is in general circulation that two students of Johns Hopkins University are preparing to fight a duel near Druid Hill early Saturday morning. The challenged is a Southerner of good family, and the challenger belongs to one of Baltimore's best known families. The difference grew out of an apparently innocent remark dropped by the Southerner regarding the dress of his opponent, who is reported to be a student of the University.

A Raged List.

The jury lists for the Circuit Court are rather ragged. This morning new lots of forty jurors were called in three of the five divisions of the court. Out of the forty called in Division No. 1 twenty-six answered and many others were excused. The number of jurors available for jury duty is two years old. Many names on the list are of dead men. Many are moved and cannot be found. Many are over age.

Writs of Injunction Issued.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 19.—Suit was brought in the Federal Court here yesterday by Sawyer, Wallace & Co. of New Jersey against J. Fichel and Abraham Loewenthal of the Evansville Gas & Electric Light Co. The purpose of the suit is to restrain Fichel and Loewenthal from dissipating the property to evade payment of a judgment for $160,541 on which an execution was issued in Evansville on Oct. 20, 1888, and which was paid after $10,000 to W. H. Thompson who has since erected a very substantial seven-story building. The suit is being conducted by the firm of Cornet & Ziebig, who are representing the plaintiff.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS.

WHY THE SMITH-GODFREY FIGHT DID NOT OCCUR.

A Political Squabble Knocked It Out—Glove-Fight May Now Occur in California—Big Salary Paid Starer Caldwell—Jockeys Strike at Limer—Sporting News From All Sections.

The fact of the matter is that a political squabble is responsible for the postponement. Mayor Patrick Jerome Gleason of Long Island City, in whose halliwick the Puritan Club-house stands, has many warm friends and many persistent enemies in Queen's County. Among the latter is Mr. Fleming, the District Attorney of the county.

The Mayor is of the opinion that glove contests such as the club contemplated are within the pale of the law. District Attorney Fleming believes the contrary, and he has instructed the Sheriff to see that the principles, accounts and managers of the club if any contest worthy of the name takes place under the auspices of the club or any other. The club managers know that if they send the man into the ring to spar merely the spectators will be disgusted and will never attend another affair of the kind, and they hesitate ordering a genuine contest, because they know it would be stopped, and they would be brought face to face with the law.

The enemies of Mayor Gleason are determined that he shall be "downed," but even if that is effected it will only be after a long and determined fight. Even if he was deposed from power in his party it would be impossible to deprive him of his personal following, and he is too shrewd and unforgetting a intriguer to be beaten out of business.

Meanwhile the club, which really consists of Dick Roche of St. Louis, Jimmy Wakely of this city, and a few others who do not wish their names to be made public, are figuratively speaking between the devil and the deep sea. They have built the finest playground in the world, and they have ready for them the best pugilistic patronage extant, but owing to a political faction fight they can not realize on the enterprise. No wonder there is mourning in sporting circles.

The same night that Smith and Godfrey were still in the ring, the Puritan Club held an exhibition of amateur boxing, which was given publicly in one of the largest risks in Brooklyn, not more than three miles from the Puritan Club. About 3,000 people, who were far more orderly and well-behaved than are most of the attendants, were present, and the boxers, who were more than enough for any professionals, and there were a dozen at least three-round bouts, were all won by the debutantes, their antagonists. There were two clear knock-outs during the evening and no harm done at that. The boxers, who are mostly amateur and amateur boxers have any privileges that are denied professionals? I can't for the life of me see why one class should be fit and the other foul.

California Club Victory.

At San Francisco yesterday a jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Sidney Huntington, arrested last September for engaging in a glove fight before the Youngmen's Athletic Club. In a night in which a young fellow was killed in a fight in the club, the court was told by the authorities. To test the law Huntington and another local pugilist were induced to give an exhibition of boxing at the club, and the two were arrested and remained in jail.

They were arrested and yesterday Huntington was as stated, tried and acquitted. The verdict has been a great victory for the members of the club who regard it as settling the question of the right of the organization to hold glove contests.

It is expected that the fight will be rendered this afternoon but "The Nominees" will divide the week.

"Master and Man," is pleasing lovers of melodrama at Hay's, where it is running to good houses and much appreciation.

Starter Caldwell's Big Pay.

Caldwell will start this winter at Gloucester, and will receive $200 a day for his services, the highest sum ever paid to a starter in this or any other country. A man occupying Caldwell's position can not but have a critical but-minded turn of mind, and he is the best starter who ever handled the flag in America. Looking back over the past year, he is coming to the front, and considering the big field he has handled day after day and week after week with the greatest of skill and the best of astounding. Of course, he has made bad starts, but they are so far outweighed by the good ones that there is no room for clog.

In the big event of the year, the Brooklyn Handicap, the suburban, the Futurity, the Realization and the Junior Cup, he was the star, and one of the best. They were perfect. There was not one race of importance during the season which was lost or won by the start.

Cary Net a Record-Breaker.

Speaking of sprinters brings up the claim of Luther Cary, the college runner, for a record of 9½ seconds for 100 yards. When this announcement was made, ostensibly on the authority of good and competent men, quite a flurry was created, for on its face it was a record of 100 yards, and on the other hand, considering the big field he has handled day after day and week after week with the greatest of skill and the best of astounding. Of course, he has made bad starts, but they are so far outweighed by the good ones that there is no room for clog.

Speaking of sprinters brings up the claim of Luther Cary, the college runner, for a record of 9½ seconds for 100 yards. When this announcement was made, ostensibly on the authority of good and competent men, quite a flurry was created, for on its face it was a record of 100 yards, and on the other hand, considering the big field he has handled day after day and week after week with the greatest of skill and the best of astounding. Of course, he has made bad starts, but they are so far outweighed by the good ones that there is no room for clog.

In the big event of the year, the Brooklyn Handicap, the suburban, the Futurity, the Realization and the Junior Cup, he was the star, and one of the best. They were perfect. There was not one race of importance during the season which was lost or won by the start.
